2. Todd Merrill Studio Installs a Pop-Up Exhibition Inside Bergdorf Goodman

Already a popular shopping destination for designer clothing and accessories, Bergdorf Goodman is quickly becoming a must-visit space for innovative design. After hosting dazzling displays with Sarabande and Silvia Furmanovich, the seventh floor has now been given over to Todd Merrill Studio, which is presenting a colorful collection of works by global talents such as Draga and Aurel, Maarten Vrolijk, Stefan Rurak, Christopher Russell, and more. Encompassing furniture, lighting, and decorative objects, the studio's inaugural installation of "high glam" craft, offered in collaboration with Dedar, is on view through August. —Jill Sieracki
